1. THE UNIVERSITY

- 1.1 Maharshi Dayanand University, initially known as Rohtak University, Rohtak, was established by an Act of Legislature of Haryana in 1976 with the objective to promote inter-disciplinary higher education and research in the field of environmental, ecological and life sciences. Initially it was a unitary and residential University, but in November 1978, its character was changed and it became an affiliating University. Through an amendment in the Act in 1977, it was named after the great revolutionary and social reformer, Maharshi Dayanand and came to be known as Maharshi Dayanand University, Rohtak.

The University Grants Commission recognized this University under section 2(f) for the recognition of degrees and under section 12(b) of the University Grants Commission Act for central grants on Feb. 2, 1983.

1.2 Location

The University is situated at Rohtak, a District Headquarter of Haryana, about 75 kms from Delhi on Delhi-Hissar National Highway (NH-10). It is at a distance of about 240 kms from Chandigarh, the State Capital. It is well connected by rail and road. Rohtak is an educationally forward town where facilities of education in all fields are available.

1.3 Jurisdiction

The jurisdiction of the University extends to the districts of Rohtak, Jhajjar, Bhiwani, Mohindergarh, Mewat, Gurgaon, Faridabad, Sonapat and Rewari and all Institutions/Colleges of General Education, Engineering, Technology, Pharmacy, Computer Sciences, Medical, Dental Sciences, Ayurveda etc. located in these districts are affiliated to this University. Maharaja Agarssain Institute of Medical Sciences & Research, Agroha (Distt. Hissar) is also affiliated to this University. Presently 335 Colleges/Institutes of various disciplines are affiliated with the University.

1.4 Campus

The University Campus is spread over a sprawling area of over 700 acres. The boundary of the campus extends from Rohtak-Delhi Road to Rohtak-Delhi railway line and from Pt. BD Sharma PGIMS to Western Yamuna Canal. The campus is well laid with state of art buildings and wide road network. It presents a spectacle of harmony in architecture and natural beauty. There are as many as 10 Teaching Blocks, 8 Hostels, a Central Library, Campus School, Health Centre, Faculty House, Sports Stadium, Community Centre, Swimming Pool, Shopping Complex, Multipurpose Gymnasium Hall and an Administrative Block. About 400 residential houses are available for faculty members and non-teaching staff. Construction of a magnificent Auditorium is going on which will be ready by the beginning of the session. A Branch of State Bank of India and another of Central Co-operative Bank are available on the Campus.

1.5 Accreditation by National Assessment and Accreditation Council (NAAC)

The University Grants Commission has an autonomous National Assessment and Accreditation Council (NAAC), which has been assigned the task of accreditation and assessment of the Universities and Colleges. The Peer Team of the NAAC visited the University on February 18-20, 2003 for assessment and accreditation of the University. On the basis of the report submitted by the team, the National Assessment and Accreditation Council has granted the Maharshi Dayanand University B++ Grade with institutional score of 80.25. The Peer Team was highly impressed by the infrastructural facilities available in the University. It has made remarkable comments about the teaching-learning and evaluation system of the University. It has observed that the University has developed potential for achieving excellence in teaching, research and extension. The University endeavors to harvest the available resources to achieve excellence for which there is great potential.

1.6 University Teaching Departments

There are 31 Teaching Departments in the University which provide postgraduate teaching and research. The M.B.A. course of the University ranks among top 50 and the M.C.A. course among top 20 in India. The Departments of Sociology and Psychology are covered under Special Assistance Programme of the UGC. Similarly, the Department of Physics and the Department of Chemistry are covered under F.I.S.T. of the Department of Science & Technology of the Government of India for which financial assistance to the tune of Rs. 30 lac for Department of Chemistry and Rs. 9 lac for Department of Physics has been provided by the Govt. of India. The X Plan UGC's Visiting Expert Committee has made the following observations about the Departments :-

“Performance of Bio-Science and Social Sciences is excellent. University has a well managed & utilized Central Library. The committee appreciated the initiatives proposed by the University namely Institute of Development Studies (IDS) and Centre of Indian System of Medicine. Some of the Departments have publications of National and International repute to their credit. Departments also organize seminars, symposia and conferences.”

The Department of Pharmaceutical Sciences, a growing Department, has laudable achievements to its credit. All India Council of Technical Education has sanctioned a grant of Rs. 5.30 lakh to the Department for the establishment of Industry Institute Partnership Cell. The objective of the proposed cell is to encourage academic-industry interaction in various areas such as collaborative research, training of staff and students, campus interviews and guest lectures by experts of Pharmaceutical Industry to familiarize Pharmacy students with regard to Pharmaceutical technology advancements and future trends. Prof. A.K. Madan is the Chief Coordinator of Industry Institute Partnership Cell sanctioned by AICTE.

3. The above schedule of admission has been decided taking into consideration the normal admissions from 15-7-2008 to 18-7-2008 so that classes may start from 21-7-2008 in order to maintain the statutory provision of 180 teaching days. The late admissions with late fee of Rs. 1000/- will, however, be made from 21-7-2008 to 30-8-2008.
4. If the last date for admission/submission of application forms falls on a holiday or that day is declared holiday by the University, the next working day will be considered as the last date for the purpose.
5. There shall be no admission after 30-8-2008 in any case in order to maintain the statutory provision of 180 teaching days despite the availability of seats.
6. If the number of teaching days fall less than 180 days in the academic session 2008-2009 due to some unforeseen reasons, it shall be the responsibility of each teacher to make good the loss by taking extra classes.

11. ENROLMENT OF CANDIDATES

1. The Heads of the Departments shall forward to Registration Branch, within one month of the last date of normal admissions, the names and other particulars of every student admitted or re-admitted to the Department together with a certificate that the Registration and Continuation Fees, as prescribed by the University, have been received and deposited with the University.
2. If the name of any student is struck off from the rolls of Department or he is rusticated or expelled such fact shall immediately be reported to the Registration Branch by the Head of the Department.
3. If a mistake is detected in the admission form or in the Registration Return by the University Office, the Head of the Department, after being duly informed shall within a fortnight send a reply locating the responsibility for the mistake and inform the Registrar of the action taken.
4. Particulars of students admitted late must be forwarded by the Head of the Department on the prescribed proforma to the Registration Branch within a week of the last date notified for late admissions. Cases not received within the prescribed period shall not be entertained.
5. Permission for joining late shall not be accepted as justification for condoning deficiency in lectures. Irrespective of the date of admission, the attendance will be counted latest from the last date of admission.

Identity Cards

On admission in the Departments as well as in the Hostels, the students are required to possess identity Cards. For this purpose they should have a copy of their recent passport size photograph to be affixed on the Identity Card.

Attendance

- i) The minimum required attendance for M.A., M.Sc., M.Ed. is 65% of the full course of Lectures and Tutorials separately and 75% of Practicals held during the session.
- ii) The minimum required attendance for M.Com. is 65% of the full course of lectures and Tutorials separately.
- iii) For M.B.A., the minimum requirement of attendance is 75% of the Lectures, Tutorials, Seminars etc. delivered in each paper in each Semester.
- iv) For LL.M., the minimum requirement of attendance is 65% of the Lectures in each session as also in Seminars, if any.
- v) For LL.B., the minimum requirement of attendance is 75% of the Lectures in each session as also in Practical Training.
- vi) For Post-graduate Diploma Course in Translation, the minimum requirement of attendance is 60% of the Lectures delivered.
- vii) For MCA Course, the minimum requirement of attendance is 80% of the full course of Lectures delivered and Practicals conducted in each paper.

Note :

- i) For condoning of deficiency of lectures etc. relevant Ordinance may be consulted.
- ii) Lectures and Practicals shall be counted upto the last day when the classes break up for preparatory holidays.

A student who is unable to appear in an examination owing to shortage of attendance in a subject or subjects may be allowed to appear in that examination in the following year, provided he makes up the deficiency in the subject(s) concerned by attending classes. Such a student shall have to pay tuition fees for one term. If the deficiency is not made up during this period, he/she will have to pay tuition fees for two terms.

Tutorial Work

Special emphasis is laid on tutorial work. A regular record of tutorial work done by each student is maintained. M.A./M.Sc./M.Ed./LL.M./M.Com. students receive individual attention and proper importance is attached to seminar work.

The instruction for curbing ragging as conveyed by the UGC vide letter No. FA-I/ 97 (CPP-II) dated 7th July, 2001 in view of the judgement of Supreme Court in Civil Writ Petition No. 656 of 1998 ‘ Vishwa Jagriti Mission V/s Centre Govt.’ given below shall be adhered to strictly :-

Ragging in educational institutions is banned and any one indulging in ragging is likely to be punished appropriately, which punishment may include expulsion from the Institute, suspension from the institution or classes for a limited period or fine with a public apology. The punishment may also take the shape of (i) withholding scholarships or other benefits (ii) debarring from representation in events (iii) withholding results (iv) suspension or expulsion from hostel or mess, and the like.(v) lodging of FIR to local police. If the individuals committing or abetting ragging are not/ cannot be identified, collective punishment can be awarded to act as a deterrent.

Any disorderly conduct whether by words spoken or written or by an act which has the effect of teasing, treating or handling with rudeness any other students, indulging in rowdy or indiscipline activities which cause or is likely to cause annoyance, hardship or psychological harm or to raise fear or apprehension thereof in freshers or junior students or asking the students to do any act or perform something which such students will not do in the ordinary course and which has the effect of causing or generating a sense of shame or embarrassment, so as to adversely affect the physique or psyche of a fresher or a junior student.

Hon’ble Supreme Court of India in SLP(C) No. 24295/2004 in the matter of University of Kerala V/S Council of Principals, Colleges of Kerala and others has ordered that if any incident of ragging comes to the notice of the authority, the concerned student shall be given liberty to explain and if his explanation is not found satisfactory, the authority would expel him from the Institution.

8. Committee to check the menace of sexual harassment and violence against females

Sexual harassment is taken as a serious act of indiscipline. A Committee has been constituted by worthy Vice-Chancellor under the chairmanship of Prof. Mrs. Sunita Malhotra, Dept. of Psychology to check the menace of sexual harassment and violence against females. The “Sexual Harassment” includes any unwelcome sexually determined behaviour, whether directly or by implication and includes physical contact and advances, a demand or request for sexual favours, sexually-coloured remarks, showing pornography or any other unwelcome physical, verbal or non-verbal conduct of sexual nature.

The committee takes all precautionary measures to prevent sexual harassment and violence against female students in the university. It also ensures that there is no hostile environment towards females. No female student should have reasonable ground to believe that she is at a disadvantage or is being discriminated against. If any complaint of sexual harassment comes to the notice of the committee, immediate disciplinary action along with appropriate action in accordance with the law would be taken.

Haryana, Chandigarh and addressed to all Head of Departments, Commissioners, Ambala, Rohtak, Gurgaon and Hisar Division, All Deputy Commissioners & All Sub Divisional Officers in Haryana, Registrar, Punjab and Haryana High Court and all Districts Sessions Judges in Haryana.

Subject : Bonafide Residents of Haryana - Guidelines regarding

Sir,

I am directed to invite your attention to Haryana Govt. letters on the subject noted above vide which the instructions were issued regarding simplification procedure for obtaining the certificate of Domicile for the purpose of admission to educational institutions (including technical/medical institutions). The matter has been reconsidered in the light of judgement delivered by the Hon'ble Supreme Court of India in the case of Dr. Pardeep Jain Vs Union of India and others reported as AIR 1984-SC-1421, wherein it has been held that instead of word 'Domicile' the word 'Resident' be used in the instructions issued by the State Government and it has been decided to revise the Government instructions. Henceforth the following categories of person would be eligible for the grant of Resident Certificate:-

- i) Candidates who have passed the examination qualifying there for selection in an institution from a school/college in Haryana;
- ii) Children/wards (if parents are not living)/dependants:-
  - a) of the regular employees of Haryana State posted in or outside Haryana State or Working on deputation;
  - b) of the regular employees of the statutory bodies/Corporations established by or under an act of the State of Haryana who are posted in Chandigarh or in Haryana or outside Haryana;
  - c) of the regular employees of the Government of India posted in Chandigarh or in Haryana in connection with the affairs of the Haryana Government.
- iii) Children/wards (if parents are not living)/dependants of persons who after retirement have permanently settled in Haryana and draw their pensions from the treasuries situated in the state of Haryana.
- iv) Children/wards (if parents are not living)/dependants of pensioners of Haryana Govt., irrespective of the fact that the original home of the retiree is in a state other than Haryana or he has settled after retirement in or outside Haryana;
- v) Children/wards (if parents are not living)/dependants of persons who have permanent home in Haryana and include persons who have been residing in Haryana for a period of not less than 15 years or who have permanent home in Haryana but on account of their occupation they are living outside Haryana;
- vi) The wives of such persons who are bonafide residents of Haryana irrespective of the fact that they had belonged to any other State before marriage;
- viii) Children/wards of the accredited journalists residing at Chandigarh and recognized by govt. of Haryana (added vide C.S. letter No. 62/27/2003-6 GSI dated 29/7/2003)
- vii) Persons who were born in Haryana and produce a certificate to that effect; Provided that the parents/guardians (if parents are not living) of persons belonging to any one of the above mentioned categories are:-

- a) citizens of India;
  - b) produce an affidavit to the effect that they or their children/wards (if parents are not living)/dependants have not obtained the benefit of domicile in any other State.
2. All candidates claiming to be bonafide residents of Haryana should produce a Haryana Resident Certificate signed by the District Magistrate/General Assistant to Deputy Commissioner or Sub Divisional Officer (Civil), Tehsildar (Revenue Department of the District/Sub Division to which the candidates belong. Resident Certificate in respect of the children/wards/dependants of Haryana Government employees who are posted at Chandigarh, Delhi or elsewhere or in respect of the children wards/dependants of the employees of the statutory bodies/Corporations of Haryana established by or under an Act of the State of Haryana and located at Chandigarh, in Haryana or outside Haryana, should be issued by their respective Heads of Department.
  3. APPENDIX-J

Copy of letter No. 1170-SW (I)-95 dated 7.6.95 received from the Commissioner & Secretary to Government, Haryana, Welfare of Scheduled Castes and Backward Classes Department, Haryana, Chandigarh, addressed to all Heads of Departments, Commissioners, Ambala, Hisar, Rohtak and Gurgaon Divisions, all Deputy Commissioners & Sub Divisional Officers in Haryana and Registrar, Punjab and Haryana High Court, Chandigarh.

Sub: Exclusion of socially advanced persons/sections-(Creamy Layer) from backward Classes.

Sir,

I am directed to invite your attention to the subject mentioned above and to state that following the Supreme Court judgement in the Indira Sawhney and others versus Union of India case, the Haryana Government vide notification dated 12.10.1993 had set up the Haryana Second Backward Classes Commission. The terms of reference of this Commission were to entertain, examine and recommend upon requests for inclusion and complaints of over-inclusion and under-inclusion in the list of backward Classes. Vide notification dated 26-5-1994, the Commission was also assigned the function of specifying the basis, applying the relevant and requisite socio-economic criteria to exclude socially advanced persons/sections (Creamy Layer) from Backward Classes.

In its report submitted on 16.5.1995, the Haryana Second Backward Classes Commission had recommended the criteria for excluding socially advanced persons/sections (Creamy Layer) from Backward Classes. After considering these recommendations, the Government has decided that the benefit of reservation shall not apply to persons/sections mentioned in Annexure 'A', which is enclosed.

All the departments are requested to bring the above instructions to the notice of all the Heads of Departments and appointing authorities under their control for necessary compliance.

Subject :- Reservation of posts for Scheduled Castes, Backward Classes under the services of Haryana State.

Sir,

I am directed to refer to Haryana Government Letter No. 22/55/90-3GS-III, dated 9-11-1994 on the subject noted above which interalia laid down that for the purpose of reservation in services, Scheduled Castes in Haryana would be put in two categories i.e. Block A and Block B in direct recruitment. These instructions had been challenged in the Hon'ble Punjab & Haryana High Court by way of Writ Petition 398 of 2004-Gajay Singh Muwal Vs. State of Haryana and other 3 Civil Writ Petitions. The Hon'ble Court vide its common judgment/orders dated 6-07-2006 has quashed the above instructions dated 9-11-1994 in the following terms :-

“We accordingly, find that the present controversy is fully covered by the decision of Supreme Court in the case E. V. Chinnaiiah's case (Supra). We, accordingly, would quash the Notification No. 22/55/90-3GS-III, dated 9-11-1994 holding the same to be ultravires of the Constitution.”

The State Government has filed a Special Leave Petition CC No. 1789 of 2007-State of Haryana Vs. Gajay Singh Muwal alongwith an application for staying the operation of the judgment/orders dated 6-07-2006 of the Hon'ble High Court in the said case. Similar SLPs have been filed by some private respondents also. However, these SLPs have neither been listed for hearing nor any stay has been granted by the Hon'ble Supreme Court in India, so far.

Under these circumstances the State Government on reconsideration of the matter, has decided to withdraw instructions bearing No. 22/55/90-3GS-III, dated 9-11-1994 subject to the final decision of the Hon'ble Supreme Court in the SLPs referred to above. Consequently, there will be no categorization of the Scheduled Caste into A and B blocks. The vacancies meant for direct recruitment to reserved category of Scheduled Castes will be notified to the recruiting agencies without categorization of Scheduled Castes in A & B Blocks.

Similarly, the Govt. instructions bearing No. 22/34/98-3GS-III, dated 19-3-1999 and even number dated 5-5-1999 and letter No. 22/89/97-3GS-III dated 7-08-2000 regarding admissions in Govt. as well as in Govt. aided/self financing/Educational/Professional/Medical/Engineering/ITIs/Technical Educational Institutions and colleges will be deemed to have been modified to the extent indicated above.

It is requested that these instructions may be brought to the notice of all concerned for strict compliance.

Yours faithfully,

SD/-

13. RULES FOR HOSTEL RESIDENTS

1. All rights of admission to the University Hostels are reserved with the concerned Provost.
2. The students will be admitted to the hostels for one academic session in the beginning of the session i.e. July of every year on the recommendation of the Head of respective Teaching Department.
3. The admissions to the hostels will be purely on merit basis. The base of the merit will be the same as is adopted for admission to the various courses
4. The residents will have to vacate the hostel room within 72 hours of the termination of his/her theory papers examinations (Generally in May/June of every year). They will have to handover the complete charge of their respective rooms to the Supervisor of the hostel. No student will be allowed to keep their luggage in rooms of the hostel after the termination of their examination. A fine of Rs. 10/- per day shall be charged for the overstay along with disciplinary action against the defaulters. Furthermore, according to the existing rules, the students who have Dissertation paper in their Post-Graduate Course have to submit their Dissertation one month before commencement of the theory examinations. Therefore, the extension for the stay in the hostel will not be granted to the students on the plea that they have not completed their Dissertation work as this hampers the further admission to the hostels of the students of the next batch of same class in the next session.

However, the Foreign students studying in the University Departments who are not in the final year of their respective course may be allowed to stay in the hostel during the vacations, but on the recommendation of the concerned Head of the Department.

5. Only registered (but not employed anywhere) Research Scholars or the Research Scholars getting Scholarship/Fellowship of University/CSIR/UGC/any other funding agency will be considered for admission to the University hostels upto Oct. 31 every year. No Research Scholar shall be allowed to stay in the University Hostel beyond 4 years or after the submission of the thesis whichever is earlier. However, he has to vacate the hostel during summer vacation.

6. Hostel Facility to the Research Scholar/Ph.D. Students

A candidate who wants to avail hostel facility and Library facility before Ph.D. Registration may be enrolled and a fee of Rs. 2000/- may be charged for this purpose. The validity of this enrolment shall be six months.

7. Admission shall be sought afresh in every academic session and will be confirmed to the following:-
  - (a) Receipt of admission form duly signed by the parents/guardian of the resident and recommended by the Head of the respective Department.
  - (b) Satisfaction of the Provost regarding proper conduct and regular payment of dues of hostel, mess and canteen in case of ex-residents.
  - (c) The candidate selected for admission in the hostels are required to submit an affidavit duly attested by the Ist class Magistrate (for boys only) that they will not handover their rooms to any body else.
8. Day scholars, evening students, students of correspondence courses, college students, casual students and employees are not eligible for admission in the hostels. The students whose parents are residing in the Municipal Area of Rohtak are also not entitled for the hostel admission, If any student gives wrong address in the form he/she will be expelled from the hostel/University.

- 9. The residents permitting or abetting unauthorised occupation of the rooms/seats shall be liable to (a) expulsion from the hostel (b) forfeiture of security and /or (c) a fine of Rs. 500/-.
- 10. Residents should be properly dressed while going to the Common Room, dining room or
